MESSAGE FROM THE COORDINATOR

Dear Students,

I welcome you to the South Asian Studies Program at York. The South Asian Studies Program offers students a wide range of courses and covers topics such as religion, politics, development, literature, languages, popular culture, colonialism, and the diaspora. We hope that through this program students will gain a comprehensive knowledge of the South Asian region and the South Asian Diaspora.

We are also able to offer a Certificate Program in South Asian Studies. Please contact me if you are interested in the Certificate option. Like our Double Major and Minor options, the Certificate is also open to any student in the Faculties of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies and Fine Arts.

Please explore this calendar and the wide variety of courses carefully as it is designed to help you decide about course offerings. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via email or in person at any time. Please also visit the program website at www.yorku.ca/laps/sosc/sast. You will find the most recent program changes as well information on our cultural and academic events on the site. I wish you all the best and hope that your experience in the South Asian Studies Program is productive and enriching.

Shobna Nijhawan
Program Coordinator

THE SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

The South Asian Studies program is an interdisciplinary undergraduate program housed in the Department of Social Science in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies. The program offers a range of courses that allows students to pursue their cultural and academic interests in South Asia and its Diaspora. Organized around carefully selected themes in culture, history, politics, literature, religion, economics, and development, the core and other courses provide critical perspectives for those who would like to know more about South Asia as well as for those who wish to deepen their pre-existing knowledge about South Asia.

Given that contemporary South Asia has emerged as a major world force faced with unprecedented social and political changes, the program offers grounded and expert analyses of challenges that face different regions of South Asia. The program also engages with the contemporary South Asian Diaspora, which has become a significant and powerful presence in Canada and elsewhere. By exploring the complex history of South Asian immigration and its experiences, such courses are geared to reflect upon issues that face North American South Asians in particular.

The Program Office is housed in the Ross Building and associated faculty members have their offices in different University buildings (for a list of faculty members please see pages 34-35). The South Asian Studies program coordinates several cultural events and academic activities like guest lectures, workshops and seminars, often in collaboration with the York Centre of Asian Research. Students are encouraged to participate in these events.

Combining a major in South Asian Studies with any discipline in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies offers employment opportunities in international organizations, government or the private sector. The fields vary from academic teaching, international journalism, fine arts, films and theatre, literature, environmental studies, economics, linguistics and international development.

PROGRAM OPTIONS & REQUIREMENTS

The program is open to all students pursuing an Honours BA in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies. It is available as either a Major or Minor degree program and must be combined with a major in another discipline. It can also be taken as a Certificate (24 credits are required for this option). Students who have already chosen a major may be able to add a specialization in South Asian Studies. The major and the minor require 36 and 30 credits respectively. If you are not in the Faculties of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies and Fine Arts, but interested in the program, please contact the Program Coordinator for more information and to guide you through the application process.

General Education Requirements:

Effective FW 2014- 15, a minimum of 21 General Education credits are required as follows:

- 6.00 credits in Natural Science (NATS)
- A 9.00 credit approved general education course in the social science or humanities categories
- A 6.00 credit approved general education course in the opposite category to the 9.00 credit course in social science or humanities already taken

Honours (Double Major) Interdisciplinary Program (36 credits)

Students who wish to pursue this program should register in the Honours (Double Major) program. Students who chose to major in South Asian Studies must also select a major in one of the following departments: International Development Studies, Anthropology, Economics, English, History, Humanities, Political Science, Sociology, or another approved discipline. All South Asian Studies majors should organize their programme of study in consultation with the South Asian Studies coordinator and the advisor in their other department.

Course Requirements:

Students enrolled in this program are required to take 36 credits in their co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department or school for students in Honours Double Major interdisciplinary programs. Courses taken to meet South Asian Studies program requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental major.

Students are similarly required to meet general education, distribution and other degree requirements prescribed for Honours BA students by the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies.

Students must complete 36 credits as follows:

- AP/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AP/EN 3031 6.00; AP/EN 3240 6.00; AP/EN 3430 6.00; AP/HND 2700 6.00; AP/HUMA1846 6.00; AP/HUMA 3801 6.00; AP/SOSC 3970 6.00; AP/SOSC 4170 6.00; AP/SOSC 4436 6.00; AP/SOCI 4450 6.00;
- 12 additional credits from the list of South Asian studies courses;
- AP/SOSC 4435 6.00.

Upper-level credits: at least 36 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, including at least 18 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours (Minor) BA Program (30 credits)

The Program also allows students the option of an Honors Minor degree in Asian Studies. The South Asian Studies Minor requires 30 credits as follows:

- AP/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AP/EN 3031 6.00; AP/EN 3240 6.00; AP/EN 3430 6.00; AP/HND 2700 6.00; AP/HUMA 1846 6.00; AP/HUMA 3801 6.00; AP/SOSC 3970 6.00; AP/SOSC 4170 6.00; AP/SOSC 4436 6.00; AP/SOCI 4450 6.00;
- 6 additional credits from the list of South Asian studies courses;
- AP/SOSC 4435 6.00.

Note: at least six credits in the minor must be at the 4000 level.

Cross-Disciplinary Certificate (24 credits)

For this option, students will be required to complete 24 credits from a list of approved South Asian Studies courses including two required courses: SOSC 2435 6.00 and AS/SOSC 4435 6.00 (Please note that the certificate is not open to students who are pursuing a major or minor degree in South Asian Studies).

Additional Specifications:

- For purposes of meeting program requirements, all General Education courses (9.00) will count only as six credits towards the major or minor.
- Several additional Special Topics courses may be offered in any given year. Students may take relevant Special Topics courses for major or minor credit towards South Asian Studies subject to the approval of the Program Coordinator. As well, students may take courses for credit in South Asian Studies through Glendon College and the Faculty of Fine Arts, subject to degree credit exclusion and In-Faculty regulations and with the approval of the Program Coordinator.
- Students are normally not encouraged to take the core and capstone courses in the same year. If you should need to take them both in the same year, please contact the coordinator.

THE BEST ESSAY PRIZE IN SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES

The Best Essay Prize in South Asian Studies is awarded to an undergraduate student at York who has written the best essay/paper or a similar piece of graded course work related to South Asia. All South Asian studies faculty members at York will be invited to nominate submissions from their courses from previous fall/winter sessions. Students are also welcome to nominate their essay/paper for consideration. The submissions should be sent in electronically to the South Asian Studies program coordinator (sast@yorku.ca) and will be adjudicated by the South Asian Studies Executive Committee.

COURSE OFFERINGS

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

Please note: courses marked '*' must be approved by the Program Coordinator, as course content varies. For these courses to count towards the South Asian Studies degree, or the cross-disciplinary certificate, certain assignment topics chosen in the course must focus on South Asia. This is to be determined in consultation with the course instructor and program coordinator.

CORE COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

AP/SOSC 2435 6.00 INTRODUCTION TO SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES

Course Director: A. Mukherjee & S. Nijhawan

This core course for the South Asian Studies Program introduces students to contemporary South Asia by exploring six inter-related themes: history and state formation; political economy; institutions and governments; social movements; environment and development; and culture and identity, including issues relating to the South Asian Diaspora. As far as possible, the course will present material written by authors writing out of South Asia and draw upon the work of the South Asian Diaspora.

Class Format: Three hour seminar

Projected Enrolment: 125

AP/SOSC 4435 6.00 ADVANCED TOPICS IN SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES

Course Director: V. Agnew

This year the course will explore the migration of people from South Asia to different parts of the world. We will be studying and analyzing the South Asian Diaspora and how it came to be what it is at the present time. We examine the settlement of South Asians in Canada, Britain, United States, Middle East, the Caribbean, and Africa. Some of the themes that will be particularly emphasized are: the economic contribution of the immigrants to the homeland and place of settlement, anti-racist movements, women's empowerment, and the impact of the media, particularly Bollywood, on the Diaspora.

Class Format: Three-hour lecture

Projected Enrolment: 25

FACULTY OF LIBERAL ARTS & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

ANTHROPOLOGY

AP/ANTH 2100 6.00 FROM EMPIRE TO GLOBALIZATION: ANTHROPOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

Course Director: A. Sorge

This course analyzes and critiques the social and cultural foundations of historical and contemporary forms of capitalism, development and globalization from an anthropological perspective. As part of this critique we examine forms of on-the-ground resistance around the world.

Course credit exclusions: AP/ANTH 2100 3.00, AP/ANTH 2100 6.00 (prior to Fall 2012).
Prior to Fall 2009: Course credit exclusions: AS/ANTH 2100 6.00.

AP/ANTH 3570 6.00 ANTHROPOLOGY, ISLAM AND MUSLIM SOCIETIES

Course Director: T. Ahmad

This course examines debates amongst anthropologists about the study of Islam and Muslim societies, and Muslim expressions of Islam according to anthropological themes including the body, space, ritual, knowledge, agency and representation. Students design and undertake a field-based research project.

Course credit exclusion: AP/ANTH 4180 6.00 (prior to Fall 2013).

AP/ANTH 4350 3.00 (FALL) PERSPECTIVES IN VISUAL ANTHROPOLOGY

Course Director: TBA

This course examines how humans produce, receive and use visual media (i.e., photographs, film, etc.) in different societies and cultures, how the visual is differentiated from other forms of expression, and the social and cultural apparatus that support such processes.

Prior to Fall 2009: Course Credit Exclusion: AS/ANTH 4350 3.00.

Class Format: Three-hour lecture

Projected Enrolment: 25

GEOGRAPHY

AP/GEOG 3370 3.00 (FALL) INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT: CRITICAL GEOGRAPHICAL PERSPECTIVES

Course Director: J. Hyndman

This course deals with conceptual debates on 'Third World' development. It also explores issues of development including economic growth and poverty, resource use, agrarian change, industrial transformation, service-sector development, rural urban inequality, gender relations, neoliberalism and imperialism, and prospects for democracy and macro-level structural social change in the less developed world.

Prerequisites: 54 credits successfully completed or written permission of the Instructor.

Course credit exclusions: AP/GEOG 4370 3.00.

HISTORY

AP/HIST 2790 6.00A ISLAMIC CIVILIZATION, 622 – 1400

Course Director: T. Abdullah Sam

This course will survey the diverse history of Islamic societies from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries. Topics include: the pre-Islamic Middle East; Arabian society; Muhammad and the rise of the new religion; the expansion of Islam in Asia, Africa, and Europe; the fundamental belief system of Islam; the Caliphate of Baghdad; the development of various schools of Islamic theology, mysticism, philosophy, science, and the arts; the commercial revolution of the Middle Ages; and the problems of continuity and change.

Political, social, cultural, and economic institutions will receive roughly equal treatment. While the course considers trends affecting the Islamic world as a whole, the primary focus will be the central Islamic lands of the Middle East. Students will be introduced to several primary source materials in translation such as selections from the Qur'an and from poetry and medieval fiction, as well as from travellers' accounts.

Class Format: Two-hour lecture and a one-hour tutorial

Projected Enrolment: 100

Course Credit Exclusions: Prior to Fall 2009: AK/HIST 3530 6.00 (prior to Fall/Winter 2000-2001), AS/HIST 2790 6.00, AS/HIST 3790 6.00 (prior to Fall/Winter 2000-2001).

AP/SOSC 3970 6.00 INDIA: CULTURE AND SOCIETY

Course Director: V. Agnew

The course examines some of the major political and social developments in India since independence. India has made some significant progress in the last fifty years but it is constantly faced with new political, social, and economic challenges. A majority of India's population struggles with poverty and deprivation in rural and urban India. We examine some of the causes of poverty, political and economic initiatives to alleviate it, and the social movements that it has spawned. The course will discuss some themes in detail such as the women's movement, caste politics, Congress and the BJP government, and the emergence and growth of religious conflict. It will include readings from a variety of disciplines and will integrate novels and films, which deal with relevant themes.

Class Format: Three-hour lecture

AP/SOSC 4436 6.00 INDIA AND GLOBALIZATION

Course Director: V. Agnew

This course analyzes the extent to which globalization has transformed India. It considers whether the process has exacerbated inequalities in the distribution of resources and income within the country. We do this by focusing on (a) the economy, particularly service and information technologies; (b) social transformation through use of various communication technologies; and (c) the emigration of professional and educated elites.

Course credit exclusions: None.

PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusion: AS/SOSC 2435 6.00.

AP/SOCI 4450 6.00 WOMEN IN DEVELOPMENT

Course Director: S. Bawa

This course critically explores the notion of “Women in Development” in its different meanings in terms of politics, economy and culture.

The first part of the course examines the idea of “development” both as an analytical concept and a socio-economic and political situation in a national and global context. In doing this, we will also look at culture and the roles it plays in the civil society.

The second part concentrates on locating women as agents and subjects within the general framework of “development” and in assessing their mutual relations. It examines “gender” in relation of globalization, nationalism, class and ‘race’/caste.

Class Format: Three-hour lecture

Projected Enrolment: 25

FACULTY OF FINE ARTS

MUSIC

FA/MUSI 1500 6.00 THE MUSIC OF BOLLYWOOD FILMS

Course Directors: S. Viswanathan & TBA

Examines the use of music in Indian popular cinema (the Bollywood musical) through a detailed analysis of the genre. The careful consideration of music as it relates to story lines and plots, styles and forms, cultural roots, historical development, financial structures, and social implications of the genre will attempt to show why the music of Bollywood cuts across the cultural, religious, and socio-economic borders to form an important part of India's national and diasporic identity. Music directors and composers/performers studied will include: Naushad, S.D. Burman, Shanker-Jaikishen, O.P. Nayyar, Usha Khanna, Madan Mohan, R.D. Burman, Bappi Lahiri, A.R. Rehman.

Prerequisite: None. No previous musical training is required. This course is directed towards non-majors.

FA/MUSI 3320 3.00 (FALL) MUSIC OF INDIA

Course Director: TBA

Studies theoretical systems and contemporary performance styles in relation to one another and in the context of a number of closely related aspects of Indian culture.

Prerequisites or corequisites: Foundation courses. Open to non-majors/minors by permission of the course director.
